Key words: battleship, Tegetthoff-class

One hundred years ago, on January 17th, 1914 in Rijeka the battleship SMS Szent István was launched. The 20,000 ton Szent István was the fourth member of the Tegetthoff-class, the first and only dreadnought class of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy. The keel of the battleship No. VII was laid down on January 12th, 1912 in the Ganz-Danubius shipyard in Rijeka. The battleship was named Szent István and was launched on January 17th, 1914. After some delays the Szent István was commissioned on November 17th, 1915.
